Introduction

Thank you for considering being a guest on my podcast. This podcast grew from a lack of an outlet for a retired Instructional Designer, Veteran, and BMX enthusiast. Really, the perfect storm as you will most likely learn soon.

So, here is the lead-up timeline:

- Aug 2024: I purchased a Radical Rick trophy (plaque) on eBay, for my RR collection, and asked the seller who earned it. I was told “I purchased Harry Leary’s storage unit last year”. I looked around and on faith bought a few more items before buying my first “lot” from the seller.

I shared that purchases were made, with the seller by name, in two facebook groups and was met with crickets (August 24th). Noone cared. I was told it was a “fool's investment” and laughed at or ignored. I have purchased four lots now and plan on purchasing more as the opportunity arises; the seller and I have developed a friendship. I don’t know what he has in inventory, I am going mostly on blind faith when available.

- Suddenly, starting September 7th, everyone cared but I was asked not to participate in other groups and respectfully withdrew.
- So, I started The Unofficial Harry Leary Fireside Chat Group on Facebook and began developing content to support the page, with goals of:
1) enhancing my understanding of my own collection, 2) giving myself a “retired professional” outlet (creativity not financial), and 3) developing and nurturing a living Harry Leary Body of Knowledge that includes open discussions, perhaps a place to work through grief of his passing and many issues created during his life, and public validation and verification of Harry Leary items.

This podcast is the next step in the evolution of this program.

Notes:

A Little About Kyle

Kyle is a late 70's baby and has all of the likes and quirks of one who grew up in The SF East Bay during that time frame. Like most of his generation, he's kind of a hodgepodge of eclectic stirrings. But, there are those who love him regardless.

So... Here are:

Five "Interesting" Facts

- 1) He has hired over 1000 people and even developed an employment path for "unqualified" candidates that had a good personality, as a Silicon Valley tech company direct hiring manager during high growth pre and post IPO periods. This team went on to earn SC Magazine Awards 3 of his 4 years for "Industry Best Customer Service".
- 2) Kyle inherited a pet piranha.
- 3) His collection of 13 BMX bikes and fun memorabilia has him wanting to open a museum eventually - "I'm a "retired" Instructional Designer and one of my Master Degrees is in Education with a focus on Online Teaching & Learning so it is the perfect retirement job."
- 4) He is the son of a former Hells Angel who went to prison when Kyle was two years old.
- 5) He founded the Veterans Employee Resource Group (VERG) for a major financial institution and within 3 years the group earned a Secretary of Defense Employer Support Freedom Award.
- 6) He had his first daughter at the age of 44. She is the blessing of his life and he is grateful that he is able to be a Stay-at-Home Dad with her. Their current thing is Ms. Rachel.

You said five - Oh, you caught that...

He is a 100% VA Disabled Veteran who deployed twice onboard the USS Oldendorf (DD-972), earned the designator of Master Training Specialist (MTS) while stationed at the Naval Security Group Activity (NSGA)/Cryptologic Readiness Group (CRG), and served as a Senior Consultant: Cryptologic Intelligence Collection Operations at the Space and Naval Warfare Command (SPAWAR) - Under NSA tasking & is a "451" graduate (Intermediate Signal Analyst).

Ok, so... LinkedIn stuff over. I've done a lot but I have my demons. I have over 6 years of sobriety from alcohol. Shortly after quitting drinking, I discovered I was Bi-Polar 1 - the fight of my life began. It's a long story that nearly cost me everything, hell - I nearly threw it all away. Nearly...

My Story finds hope

Conversation Outline

Setting the stage:

This podcast draws inspiration from many hours as a kid spent listening to cassettes of old radio programs - where you had to use a bit of imagination but the stories were amazing. Throw in content awareness from Howard Stern and you have the show's core foundation. It pairs that with a stage that draws inspiration from the Facebook group's fireside chat theme. This podcast's theme will be based on a fireside chat held at a bonfire at the beach, with background audio that includes soundtracks of the beach and a fire. It is unknown if a visual will be used at this time - this decision will likely come during the editing or review process but may include: images, video recordings of the conversation, a muted (opacity) fire video, and more.

Think of this as a limited visual movie experience disguised as an interview.

Introduction: "Hello"

I don't believe listeners should be subjected to a long over produced intro that does nothing to actually enhance the content. So, this podcast will provide a brief introduction consisting of: 1) ocean bonfire background audio (throughout), 2) a bicycle pulling up and someone dismounting, 3) footsteps, then 4) brief greetings. That's it.

Think - You just rode up to a bonfire and say "Hi Kyle"

I respond with "Hey Greg"

We share greetings

What's new? Do you have anything exciting coming up?

Why yes, in fact I am ... you?

Body: "Hey, I was wondering ..."

Conclusion: Till next times...

Potential Questions (Base)

About Greg:

- Before we dive into a few non-Harry related questions, fact check me:
 - Greg races as a Novice
 - From Carefree, AZ: Is that hometown or is that just currently living?
 - Hometown track is Black Mountain BMX
 - Association with Fall Risk Racing: Owner and found it in 2019 and it is still active
 - Sponsors: Fall Risk Racing, AZ Bicycle Werx
 - Races in the cruiser class and is currently ranked #20 nationally
 - 2019 UCI World Championship: Held in Zolder, Belgium. 209 individuals represented the United States. Greg represented for 50 & Over Mens Cruisers. Results - XXXXXXXXXXXX
- Is there anything else you would like us to know about you before we get started?
- What has been the pinnacle of your career? I am guessing UCI World Championship but I may be wrong.
- What are your thoughts on there being a place for eBMX within the sport of BMX?
 - Will society be able to find a hybrid or separate approach to potential eBMX and the sport as we know it, or as a sport in and of itself? How will this affect the sport as we have traditionally known it?
- When your kids were growing up, what did they love to watch that you hated!
- What was your favorite thing to cook for your kids when they were young?
- What is a family tradition of yours during Christmas time that other people might think is weird?

Fall Risk Racing:

- I was checking out the website and I am quite impressed. Tell me a little about the company.
 - Do you manufacture in house or do you outsource?
 - What is either: 1) your inhouse manufacturing process look like or 2) where is everything made and what is your involvement in the process?
- You do have something that I am in the market for - a balance bike. My daughter is 14 months and we got her a Strider with the rocker attachment but I want something else for when she is racing.

- Tell me about your balance bike?

Harry Related:

- How did you meet Harry and what was your relationship like with him?
- I've gotten the impression that Harry had a very business capable mind, simply based on interviews I've listened to. Would you agree and can you tell us a story about why?
- What was he like as just Harry the guy?
- One thing that would shock listeners to know about Harry that is most likely not in the public domain (positive preferably).
- First word to come to mind when you think of Harry as (anything is fair game):
 - Coworker:
 - Friend:
 - Coach & Mentor:
 - BMX Legend:
 - Why did you choose those words?
- Harry wasn't a fan of cruisers, from what I understand, even though he raced in the class. He's on record mentioning not having "a feel" for the bike on a cruiser.
 - The bike you donated to the HOF from Harry was a 20". Did you race outside of your class to get the bike mileage, or am I misunderstanding that aspect?
 - What did you hear of his thoughts personally on the subject that may differ from my understanding?
- How did you get involved with the Facebook Group "The Unofficial Harry Leary Fireside Chat Group" and
- What do you think of the group and its content?
- Do you in any way think it disrespects Harry and/or his memory?

- Final words: Is there anything you would like to say about Harry, or to his friends and family?

Notes:

Connecting and Recording

Facebook Messenger Video will be the primary service to connect, unless otherwise requested.

Alternates may include: Zoom, phone call on speaker, or other options agreed to by all parties.

Recording tools to be used include, but are not limited to: Camtasia screen recording and/or other digital recording devices to capture, edit, host, and disseminate audio and/or video.

The great thing about being an audio focused podcast is that we have the liberty of editing pretty easy. I can easily:

- Clear-up most "Um's" "Ah's" "Uh's" etc. Even a cough. I just ask that you think to leave me a buffer to clean things up - just a brief moment if you can.
- If you make an error, or misspeak, don't like how something came out, or your wife opens the door and asks for you to pick up milk... It is ok, we can pause and you can reframe your thoughts and I will edit accordingly.

Please make sure you are in as quiet of a room as possible - life happens but driving down the 5 with the top down does not make for a good recording - I am sure you are aware. I'll probably have my daughter, so - professional, I know. The power of editing.

Conclusion

Thank you. I look forward to hearing back from you.
